TRACKHAWK ADVISORS

Case Study: Gee's Acquisition Financing

Updated as of 3Q 2026

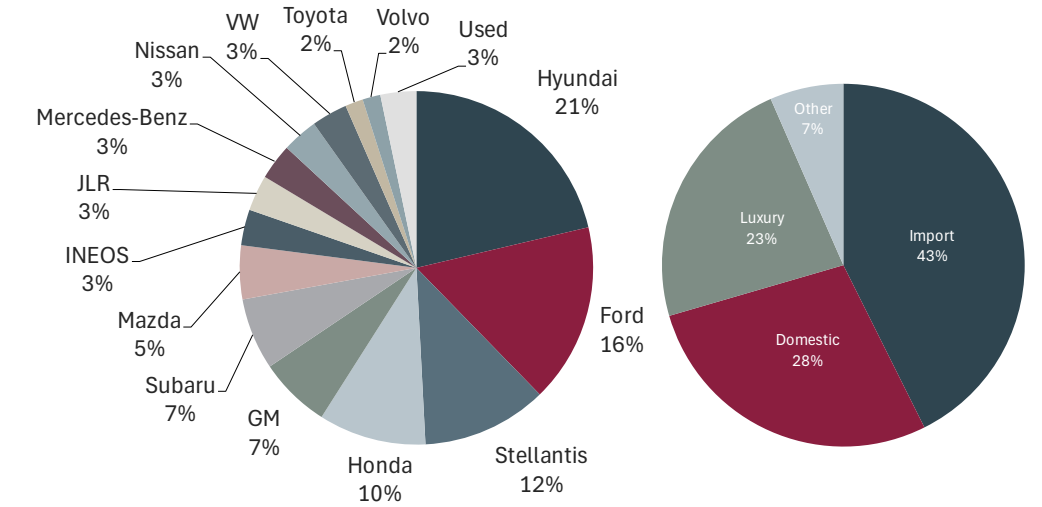

GEE AUTOMOTIVE COMPANIES

Case Study: Gee Automotive's Acquisition of Tuttle-Click

Deal Summary

- On 4/28/26, Gee Automotive (Gee) closed the acquisition of the Jim Click Automotive Team and Tuttle-Click Automotive Group (Tuttle-Click)
  - Funded with $300mm of 7.25% notes, pushing leverage to ~5.0x
- Tuttle-Click Highlights
  - 15 dealerships and 3 collision centers
    - 9 dealerships and 2 collision centers in Southern AZ
    - 6 dealerships and 1 collision center in Southern CA
- Pro Forma Combined Scale
  - 75 franchises across 57 rooftops in 5 states (WA, OR, ID, CA, AZ)
  - 5 collision centers in 3 states (CA, AZ, OR)
- Ownership Details
  - Gee: founded by George Gee in 1983; majority owned by Bridger Holdings, a West Coast-based investment firm
  - Tuttle-Click: co-owned by cousins Bob Tuttle and Jim Click Jr.; traces to Holmes Tuttle (Bob's father)
    - Both families fully exited ownership; Gee is keeping the store names and existing management

Mix by OEM Group and Segment

Sources: Publicly available information including S&P ratings report, press releases, and CreditSights

Case Study: Gee Automotive's Acquisition of Tuttle-Click

$300mm 5yr Senior Unsecured Notes

- Notes Issuance
  - Gee funded the acquisition of Tuttle-Click with its inaugural bond offering, alongside a syndicate of lenders and an equity contribution
  - On 2/9/26, Gee priced a $300mm 5yr senior unsecured notes offering with a 7.25% coupon
- Credit Profile
  - Gee has a corporate rating of B+/B1 from S&P and Moody's; its debut senior notes offering has a rating of B+/B3
  - S&P forecasts ~5x leverage, $3.8bn in pro forma revenue, and a 4-4.5% adjusted EBITDA margin
  - Gee's 5yr maturity is the shortest tenor of any auto retail bonds outstanding
- Business Profile
  - Gee has acquired 38 dealerships since 2012

| February 2026 Notes Offering | |
|---|---|
| Sources | Amount ($mm) |
| Unsecured Notes Due 2031 | $300 |
| Total Sources | $300 |
| Uses | Amount ($mm) |
| Repay Existing Debt | $121 |
| Cash to Balance Sheet | 51 |
| Fund Tuttle-Click Acquisition | 128 |
| Total Uses | $300 |
| Pro-Forma Capitalization | Amount ($mm) |
| Cash | $50 |
| Secured Debt | 500 |
| Unsecured Notes Due 2031 | 300 |
| Total Debt | $800 |
| Pro Forma EBITDA | $160 |
| Secured Leverage | 3.1x |
| Total Leverage | 5.0x |
| Net Leverage | 4.7x |

| Final Terms | 2031 Notes |
|---|---|
| Pricing Date | February 9, 2026 |
| Issuer | Gee Automotive Holdings LLC |
| Corporate Ratings (S&P / Moody's) | B+ / B1 |
| Bond Ratings (S&P / Moody's) | B+ / B3 |
| Issue | Senior Unsecured Notes |
| Amount | $300mm |
| MaturityCall | March 20315yr NC2 |
| CouponSpread vs US Treasuries | 7.250%(T + 350 bps) |
| Yield to Worst (10/8/26)Spread vs US Treasuries | 7.518%(T + 249 bps) |

Yield to worst at the last institutional trade on October 8, 2026; spread vs the 5-year Treasury. The notes trade below par because Treasury yields rose ~130 bps since February, but the spread remains ~100 bps inside pricing. Joint Bookrunners - J.P. Morgan & BofA Securities

Source: Publicly available information including Moody's/S&P ratings reports and press releases; revenue, EBITDA and capitalization amounts are estimated.